

CLAIMS

We claim:

1. An electronic notarization on net system, comprising:

a center site;

a plurality client sites;

a network connecting the center site and the clients sites to each other;
wherein the center site includes an open electronic record database for storing therein record from clients' sites, and for a notarization procedure;

Means for accepting records of clients, requested by the clients site to this center site.

Means for storing accepted records.

Means for issuing receipt to the clients for the accepted record.

Means for searching stored records by the issued receipt.

Means for issuing certificate of the acceptance of the record, data with recorded date,
when requested by the client with above receipt.